

CONFERENCE WELCOME RECEPTION

The Conference Welcome Reception will take place Friday evening. This is an excellent opportunity for participants to create community, share faith stories and walk through exhibits with more leisure. Your company name and logo will be prominently featured in the reception room.

SATURDAY MORNING HOSPITALITY

Saturday morning hospitality offers a welcome start to an early day! Participants are able to greet one another and browse the exhibits before the prayer and keynote presentation. Your company name and logo will be prominently featured in the reception room.

SATURDAY LUNCH

A delicious boxed lunch is available to all Conference participants. Parishes have an opportunity to gather and share their morning workshop experience and be ready for the afternoon presentations. Your company name and logo will be prominently featured in the reception room.

LITURGICAL SUPPLIES

We work hard to transform the gathering space and exhibit hall into a respectful, beautiful space for worship. Sponsorship of Liturgy includes flowers and other environment needs such as banners. Other liturgical supplies needed include communion hosts and wine for the celebration.

CONFERENCE AUDIO VISUALS

Your sponsorship supports the technological needs of our speakers and for the large gathering spaces. Your company name and logo will be prominently featured in the rooms offering technology.

LIGHTING AND SOUND PRODUCTION

The amount of work that goes into technical production is amazing; The Orleans Hotel team will be putting up lights and providing service throughout both days, along with the professional sound company that is present throughout the Conference. This provides the best environment and support for all the Conference events and workshops.

Quality music is also integral to our prayer experiences and the celebration of Mass. The time and talent involved for this to be the best experience it can be requires just compensation for the instrumentalists, director and cantors. Your company's name and logo will be prominently featured in the Conference sponsor video, that will be displayed through the duration of the Conference.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Please consider donating towards Conference participant scholarships. There are some ministers that may want to attend, but cannot afford the whole cost of the conference. This would especially helpful for any young adults who are starting out in ministry; this would be a wonderful way to invite them in.

As the Roman Catholic Church of Las Vegas we come together to celebrate all who worship in our Catholic community. Our elders remind of us where we come from by sharing their wisdom and experience, while our youth serve as the foundation for a future that we strive to make better.

We celebrate the various traditions of our local Church, recognizing that we each bring unique gifts given by the Holy Spirit. While our world is quickly changing, our mission remains the same: to reach out to all with the Gospel of Jesus Christ the young and old, the believers and the seekers, the rich and the poor, the cradle Catholic and the convert, because we know that united in Christ, we are all one. This is our mission, this is our Baptismal call, this is what we believe.

Opportunities for You

We offer opportunities to support us through sponsorship, advertising and/or exhibiting at this year's conference. Your support will provide a rich experience for parish leaders to grow in faith and seek out new resources to better their ministries in serving the children, youth and adults of the different parishes, schools and apostolic movements.

Sponsorship provides a unique opportunity to showcase your organization's commitment to Catholic formation. Sponsorship opens the doors to gain access to an influential group of ministers, teachers and lay faithful in the Diocese of Las Vegas.
